

MARKUS RIECK LL.M.

Patent Attorney, Pharmacist

Fields of Expertise:

Medicinal chemistry, pharmaceutical technology, biology, biotechnology, especially biomarkers and antibodies, organic chemistry, glass, metallurgy and petrochemistry, sportswear; trademarks and designs

Memberships:

German Chamber of Patent Attorneys, Frankfurt School of Pharmacy, Alumni and Friends of the Pharmaceutical Institute, House of Pharma & Healthcare, GRUR (German Association for the Protection of Intellectual Property), FICPI, AIPPI, VPP, LES, epi (Institute of Professional Representatives before the European Patent Office), European Patent Litigators Association

✉ markus.rieck@fuchs-ip.eu

Born 1981 in Eckernförde

Studied pharmaceutical sciences at the Johann Wolfgang Goethe University Frankfurt am Main, passed the third pharmaceutical state examination, worked for three years in the field of clinical research, pharmaceutical technology and pharmacokinetics as well as in the field of analytical chemistry at Abbott GmbH & Co. KG

Active in the field of intellectual property since 2004, German and European patent attorney, Master of Laws European Intellectual Property

Honorary expert in the business plan contest Science4Life and Goethe Unibator - the startup incubator of Frankfurt's Goethe University

Joined Fuchs Patent Attorneys in 2007 and became a partner in 2011

Publications:

Markus Rieck/Florian Rüßmann, Gebühren bei Teilung einer Patentanmeldung, Mitt. 2017, 298-303 (Heft 7-8)

Comment on EPO decision of October 17, 2016, EPO T 437/14 - undisclosed disclaimer, Mitt. 2017, 78-79 (Heft 2)

Comment on EPO decision of June 3, 2015, EPO T 571/10 - Pharmaceutical compositions comprising a HMG CoA reductase inhibitor, Mitt. 2015, 193-194 (Heft 4)

Markus Rieck, Die Disclaimer-Rechtsprechung der technischen Beschwerdekammern am Europäischen Patentamt nach G 2/10, Mitt. 2014, 529-534 (Heft 12)

Markus Rieck/Malte Köllner, Patent Prosecution Highway - Lohnt sich der Aufwand?, Mitt. 2013, 525-530 (Heft 12)